

LONDON - To address the financial crisis and complications that diaspora death has caused to those in the diaspora, a worldwide funeral insurance scheme has been launched.

The Diaspora Funeral Cash Plan has been designed to help bereaved families get instant cash payout on the death of a loved one.

“We know from our work that many families and individuals have had to deal with untold financial pressures and emotional burdens within the diasporan communities particularly with regard to the repatriation of the body back home,” said Munyaradzi Javangwe, the Managing Director of Zimnat Life Assurance, which has underwritten the funeral cash plan.

The plan offers guaranteed acceptance for all applicants without any intrusive medicals checks on application or claim, and promises cash within 24 hours of a valid claim. - diasporafuneralcashplan.com